

BOSTON WATERCOLOR SOCIETY

1966 ANNUAL EXHIBITION

The 1966 Annual Exhibition of the Boston Watercolor Society will be held at the exhibition galleries of the Guild of Boston Artists Inc. Thru the kind permission of the Guild's Board of Managers our showing will run for five (5) weeks. The show will open on December 14th and close on January 18th, 1967.

This year because of space limitations, each member will be permitted only one (1) painting and it will be subject to jurying. There will be no prize money. However, honors will be conferred to four (4) paintings juried as the best.

Please bring your painting to Mr. Lank at 162 Newbury Street, Boston, not later than December 3rd and pick it up January 19th. The same rules apply to our Candidate Guests.

Here is the schedule:

December 3rd	Delivery of paintings (last day)
December 5th, Week of	Jurying of Paintings
December 14th	Unofficial opening of show
December 17th	Official Opening - Sherry Party
January 18th	Closing Date
January 19th	Pick-up of paintings

It is expected that all Members will participate and make this first appearance at the Guild successful.

Respectfully,

Charles A. Mahoney, President
